St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

SAINT OF THE WEEK

- St. Elizabeth Ann Seton's Feast Day was Tuesday, Jan 4th.
- St. Elizabeth lived from 1774-1821, and she is the first American-born canonized saint!
- After her husband died, she founded the first community for religious women in America.
- She is widely credited with helping to found the Catholic school system in America, and for this, she is known as the Patron Saint of Catholic Schools!

THE WEEK IT WAS

- We hit the ground running on our first week back from Christmas Break!
- Several classrooms celebrated the Epiphany on Thursday, bringing an end to the Christmas season.
- Students enjoyed our first Snow Day of the school year!
